AUTHOR PAT DUNLAP EVANS

The Sisters in Crime organization has selected the library as a recipient of the Love Libraries grant. Sisters in Crime is an organization that promotes the advancement of women crime writers, such as local author Pat Dunlap Evans. At this event Evans will illustrate how authors use various tones, voices, and dialects to weave tales of adventure, mystery, and self-discovery. Evans will use examples from her own novels including her latest Out and In: a Women's Mystery-Thriller. Join us for this event on Saturday, October 8th at 1pm.

TOM BARTON ART EXHIBIT AND RECEPTION

Tom Barton's nature photography will be on display during the month of October. Barton is inspired by the overwhelming beauty of Mother Nature. Everyone is invited to the artist's reception on Sunday, October 9th from 2pm to 3:30pm.

TEEN READ WEEK ART CONTEST

Students in grades 6 through 12 are invited to submit an original piece of art inspired by their personal reading experiences for the library's 6th annual Teen Read Week Art Contest. Winners will receive cash prizes and a selection of entries will be exhibited at the library in November. Entries must be received by Friday, October 14th.
