Art Contest

Art Contest

Artists are invited to create an original piece of 2-D art inspired by their personal reading experiences, whether it be a re-working of a book cover, a depiction of a scene from a favorite book, or a character portrait.

Eligibility

Students in grades 6-12 are invited to submit their artwork.

Artwork

Artists may enter one original piece of artwork in any 2-D medium and not to exceed 3 feet in any dimension.

Awards

Middle school and high school entries will be evaluated separately by the Friends of the Library panel of judges. First place winners will receive a cash prize of $150, second place $100, and third place $50. Winners will be notified by Friday, October 28th.

Display of Entries

A selection of entries will be displayed in the library meeting room in November and December.

Deadline

Entries must be received no later than Friday, October 14th. An entry form is required to be submitted with the artwork.

Liability

Work is submitted at owner's risk. Although every precaution will be taken, LTCL is not responsible for artwork while on library premises. LTCL reserves the right to refuse any entry. By entering into this contest, artists give LTCL permission to use a photo of their entry for publicity purposes.

Return of Entries

Artwork may be picked up starting Monday, January 2nd. Entries not picked up by Friday, January 20th may be disposed of unless arrangements are made in advance.

Teen Read Week

Teen Read Week is a national literacy initiative of the Young Adult Library Services Association, a division of the American Library Association. It is celebrated by thousands of libraries and bookstores across the country every year. The Lake Travis Community Library celebrates Teen Read Week with our annual art contest. For inspiration, participants are encouraged to visit the library or take advantage of our digital resources including eBooks and downloadable audiobooks on the Libby app.
