Nancy feels that her art is a dance between the two sides of her brain—at times focusing on accuracy, structure, and realism and at other times, focusing on creativity, freedom, and spontaneity. Some paintings are born from a love of a single color or experiments in form or style, and others are created purely for the joy of painting. All are invited to Nancy's art reception on Saturday, June 6th from 2pm to 4pm.
